

Hawthorn, Green

Crataegus viridis

- Deciduous tree
- 25' to 30' tall
- Rounded, wide-spreading crown
- Slow growth rate

- Simple, deciduous leaves
- Alternate leaf arrangement up to 3.5" long
- Serrated leaf margins
- Dark green leaf color
- Purplish red fall color

- White flowers in clusters
- Blooms in late May

- Small, bright red berries
- Held in clusters
- Matures in mid-September
- Persist through the winter
- Birds eat the fruit

- Grayish brown bark
- Thorns are 1.5" long
- Peeling bark exposing orange inner bark

- Good for screen border

