

Littleleaf Linden, Small-leaved Lime

Tilia cordata

- Deciduous medium to large tree, typically 50' to 60' tall
- Dense branching
- Branches are upright and spreading
- Prefers moist, deep, fertile, well-drained soils
- Tolerant of difficult growing sites and soils
- Pollution tolerant

- Leaves are 1.5" to 3.5" long
- Heart-shaped leaves
- Dark green, shiny above, light green undersides

- Autumn leaves: yellow or yellow-green

- Light yellow flowers in drooping clusters
- blooms in late June and early July
- Fragrant; bees attracted to flowers

- Small round fruit

- Bark has ridges and furrows
- Bark color is gray-brown

